

I object to Quest's attempt to block other ISPs from using the Quest network. To allow this, you would be limiting consumer choice and putting small providers out of business. Please put the public interest over the further concentration of profits and disallow Quest's request. Thank you.